The Waialeale, from Kauai, brought 2,800 bags of sugar.

The W. G. Hall and Nilhua are expected today from Kauai.

The Kauai should be here from Kauai tomorrow or Saturday.

The S. C. Allen is fumigating in the stream. She finished discharging yesterday.

The Aldabaran, Cyrus Wakefield and Helen Denny are lying idle in the stream.

The Mikahala, for Maui and Hawaii, at 10 a. m., the Noeou, for Honolulu and Kukuhihale at 10 a. m., the Kilaua Hoa, for Paahau at 4 p. m., and the Claudine, for Maui ports at 5 p. m., are called to sail today.

Kalihi Camp.

Superintendent McVeigh of the Kalihi detention camp states that everything will be in readiness for closing the camp on the 10th of this month; by that time the last of the people now in quarantine will have completed their regular period. The remaining guards will be dismissed this evening, only a few watchmen remaining. The natives remaining at the quarantine station have petitioned to be allowed to continue living at the camp at the government's expense, as they have no homes. Dr. Howard has already inoculated about fifty Japanese at the station with the prophylactic; the guards have also taken the serum.

Music and Money.

Charmed with the delightful singing of the fair young vocalists of Herr Berger's famous band, Herr Kunst last evening presented them each with $12 as a substantial token of his appreciation, and esteem. The Government band entertained at Thomas Square the usual large number of music lovers enjoying a concert which did credit both to the members of the band and their modest leader. Tonight at the Hawaiian Hotel, Hawaiian melodies will be combined with selections of American origin.

New bill at the Orpheum tonight.

PAKE SCHEMES

Bow Wongs Have Grown Desperate.

They Attempt to Mislead Executive Council in Regard to Granting of a Charter.

The Bow Wong Wui, the secret Chinese society organized lately in Honolulu avowedly for the purpose of antagonizing the present Government of China, has not yet secured a charter from the Executive Council. The society presented an application for a charter some weeks ago. Yang Wei Pin, Chinese Consul here, opposed favorable action and presented documents to prove that the Bow Wong Wui was not a law-abiding organization.

He stated that the society's constitution was inimical to peace in the Chinese colony, and that he feared if the Wui was chartered, bloodshed would result. Attorneys for the Wui alleged that the constitution presented by the Consul was bogus. This was easily disproved to the satisfaction of the Executive Council.

Now the Bow Wongs have tried a new dodge. Yesterday, before President Dole and Ministers Mott-Smith, Young, Damon and Cooper, the Wui came to press its claims for a charter. Attorneys Henshall and W. R. Castle represented the Bow Wongs as counsel, and Wong Leong, H. A. Heen and C. K. Al accompanied them.

Attorney Castle said that the society was for the purposes set forth in articles and by-laws which he presented or bring with other papers in the matter. He said that the Wui had nothing whatever to do with any other society.

Attorney General Cooper asked if the attorneys and members of the Bow Wongs would deny that the society was not organized for the protection of the Chinese Emperor against the Empress? If it were not the same as the Royal Protective Union? The list of officers of the Royal Protective Union was then shown to the lawyers and Chinese visitors. H. A. Heen said that he and others whose names were on the paper had been approached to form an organization and had consented to do so.

When the articles of association were presented to them they saw that they were not what they should be, and they withdrew. Heen said that they were now attempting to organize the Bow Wong Wui for educational purposes, and that his name was not on the other list by his authority. Attorney Castle said that it had been represented to him that the Chinese Consul and withdrawn his objection to the Bow Wong Wui, or rather had admitted that he had been mistaken as to the objects of the association.

Minister Mott-Smith inquired if the Chinese reformer, Leung Chi-so was in any way connected with this society. Mr. Castle said he was not, as far as he knew.

Heen translated the words, Bow Wong. He said that Bow meant many things—a guarantee of an insurance company, the endorsement of a note, etc. Wong referred to a live Emperor, God, or something high. Attorney Henshall explained that the name Bow Wong was taken by the society to obtain more money for educational purposes.

President Dole finally informed the leaders that he would consult Mr. Yakkam and Dr. Li Khai Fai in the matter and would notify the gentlemen as to the time when they would have a hearing.

There have been rumors for several days that the Bow Wongs would try the trick of feigning to cast aside their constitution and by-laws and adopting others in order to deceive the Executive Council. The subterfuge of the wily Wui will hardly fool any one. It is easy to prove that the constitution and by-laws filed by the Consul before the Council some weeks ago were intended for the Bow Wong Wui. Its officers had them printed and took them away from the printing office. They were distributed at the avowed headquarters of the Bow Wong Wui in the former Salvation Army hall, corner King and Nuuanu streets.

On their provisions the Bow Wongs made their campaign. It is said now that there are 3,000 Chinese in this city who have sworn allegiance to the Bow Wong Wui. Two or three nights a week the hall is packed with hundreds who listen to the political rantings of the orators paid by the Bow Wong Wui and whose names appear on its printed list of members. All this is easy of substantiation. The fact that Leung Chi-so, the Chinese reformer now in Honolulu—for whose head the Chinese government offers $50,000—is the head and front of the Bow Wong Wui, is not to be disputed.

Leung Chi-so directed the organization of the Bow Wongs. The very men who applied to the Executive Council yesterday are in constant intercourse with him. The funds of the Bow Wongs raised by a tax on their members, are to go to the Orient for the support of the fight against the Dowager Empress, according to the constitution of the society.

The Advertiser has no interest in opposing the granting of a charter to the Bow Wong Wui save only the reason that it believes trouble will result. Wherever these Chinese revolutionary cliques gather murder follows.
